NAPO's Priority Votes 113th Congress, United States Senate

1. Vote #15: S.47 – Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization -- Anti-Trafficking Law Extension. Amendment that would add provisions to extend for four years a 2000 law that provides protections and assistance programs to trafficking victims. The amendment would create a grant program to fund services for sex trafficking victims and expand law enforcement grants for prosecuting trafficking crimes. It would criminalize the confiscation or destruction of a passport or other immigration document. It also would call on the State Department to establish anti-trafficking partnerships with the private sector and make a plan to prevent child marriage, and coordinate with the Labor Department on anti-trafficking issues. Amendment Adopted. NAPO Supported.
2. Vote #16: S.47 – Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization -- Trafficking Victim Assistance. Amendment that would allow underage sex trafficking victims to receive assistance under grants provided to help children exposed to violence. Amendment Adopted. NAPO Supported.
3. Vote #17: S.47 - Violence Against Women Reauthorization -- Duplicative Government Programs. Amendment that would direct the Justice Department to eliminate or consolidate its programs and use as much as 75 percent of the resulting savings to reduce a backlog in DNA evidence testing from cases involving rape, sexual assault and other crimes. It would redirect any leftover savings for debt reduction. Amendment Rejected. NAPO Opposed.
4. Vote #19: S.47 – Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization -- Passage. Bill that would reauthorize the Violence Against Women Act for five years. The law, which expired in 2011, provides protections and assistance programs to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. The bill would authorize funds for law enforcement training programs, prosecution and victim services. It would give American Indian tribal courts additional authority over non-tribal domestic violence offenders. It would make it illegal for victim services organizations that receive grant funding through the law to discriminate on the basis of gender identity or sexual orientation. As amended, the bill also would extend through 2017 a law that provides protections and assistance programs to trafficking victims. It would allow underage sex-trafficking victims to receive assistance under grants provided to help children exposed to violence. Bill Passed. NAPO Supported.
5. Vote #97: S.649 – Gun Policy Revisions -- Background Checks. Amendment that would expand an existing background check system to include firearms purchased at gun shows and over the Internet. It would allow gun show sales to proceed if a background check does not prompt a response within 48 hours and reduce that to a 24-hour wait four years after enactment. It would exempt family transfers and some private sales. The amendment would restrict law enforcement grant funds for states that do not provide all available records to the national background check database. It would ban the creation of a national firearms registry, allow active-duty military members buy guns in their home state and create a commission to study the causes of mass violence in the United States. Amendment Rejected. NAPO Opposed.

6. Vote #98: S.649 – Gun Policy Revisions -- GOP Substitute. Amendment that would reauthorize grants to help states use the national background check database. It would require federal courts to submit records to the database and restrict federal grant funds to states that do not meet reporting requirements. It also would expand definitions of mental illness that prohibit individuals from owning guns, make it a federal crime to purchase firearms on behalf of people legally barred from owning them and call for a task force to investigate and prosecute attempted firearm purchases by felons and fugitives. It would prohibit the Justice Department from inducing licensed gun dealers to sell firearms to a straw purchaser unless department officials certify that certain safeguards are in place. It would call for a study on the causes of mass shootings, including the impact of violent video games, and reauthorize grant programs on school security, mental health and crime prevention. Amendment Rejected. NAPO Supported.
7. Vote #104: S.649 - Gun Policy Revisions -- Gun Owner Privacy. Amendment that would withhold 5 percent of law enforcement grant funds to states and localities that release gun-ownership data, with an exception for the release of data necessary for a criminal investigation or legal proceeding. Amendment Adopted. NAPO Opposed.
8. Vote #178: Perez Nomination -- Confirmation. Confirmation of President Barack Obama's nomination of Thomas E. Perez of Maryland to be Labor secretary. Confirmed. NAPO Supported.
9. Vote #188: Comey Nomination -- Confirmation. Confirmation of President Barack Obama's nomination of James B. Comey Jr. of Connecticut to be FBI director. Confirmed. NAPO Supported.
10. Vote #276: Johnson Nomination -- Confirmation. Confirmation of President Barack Obama's nomination of Jeh Charles Johnson of New Jersey to be secretary of the Homeland Security Department. Confirmed. NAPO Supported.
11. Vote #48: Adegbile Nomination -- Cloture. Motion to invoke cloture (thus limiting debate) on President Barack Obama's nomination of Debo P. Adegbile of New York to be assistant attorney general for the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division. Motion Rejected. NAPO Opposed.
