

Take Control of Your Retirement Planning and Understand Social Security Impacts

Understanding finances, investments and your retirement readiness is especially important during times of economic uncertainty. NAPO's long-time partner, Nationwide®, offers NAPO members and affiliates access to an array of materials related to retirement planning. Nationwide is excited to host an upcoming webinar on Social Security to help educate you on the intricacies of this topic.

Social Security – The Choice of a Lifetime

This session provides education on Social Security and how to make informed filing decisions – even if you opt out of Social Security, you may still be impacted with governmental pension offsets, the windfall provision, and spouse/ex-spouse Social Security eligibility. Attendees will be able to get a free, personalized Social Security income analysis to help them maximize social security benefits following the session.
