NAPO Statement on the Shooting of San Antonio Police Officers on January 22, 2025

Alexandria, VA – The National Association of Police Organizations (NAPO) joins the nation in expressing our urgent concern and offering our prayers for the safety and recovery of the seven San Antonio Police Officers shot in the line of duty on Wednesday night. Press reports indicate that the officers were responding to a “suicide in progress” call when they were shot. The suspect was later found deceased. These officers exemplified the very highest standards and tradition of the heroic sacrifices of American law enforcement as they placed their own lives at risk in an attempt to save someone else in dire need. Please do keep these officers, their families, and coworkers in your hearts and prayers.
